Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Phyllis Keys has dedicated 16 years of her life to the Division of Motor Vehicles; and,

WHEREAS, Phyllis Keys has devoted many years to providing invaluable assistance to those in the trucking industry; and,

WHEREAS, Phyllis Keys has always been a loyal and dedicated employee who takes pride in her work; and,

WHEREAS, Phyllis Keys has earned the respect and friendship of her co-workers and the many individuals she has come in contact with throughout the years; and,

WHEREAS, Phyllis Keys is retiring from state government to a "craft-filled" life of luxury; a relaxing life which we all know she has earned and greatly deserves:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 26, 1987, as in South Dakota, with special gratitude to Phyllis for giving her best to the state that is proud to call her one of its outstanding citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

THOMAS G. LECKEY, DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE
